Blue Devils Open Wednesday Night On Miami Field

The Pahokee Blue Devils will play their opening game with Ponce de Leon in Miami on Wednesday night, Sept. 25, two days earlier than was originally scheduled in order to avoid a conflicting game scheduled to be played in the Orange Bowl Friday evening.

As a result of this two day advance in the start of the schedule Coach Clyde Alley and Assistant Coach Lowell Garrison have put the squad's final preseason training program into high gear in an attempt to get the team in top condition for the opener. Practice sessions are being held on Lairs Field each evening from 6 to 8 p. m. to avoid the oppressive afternoon heat. Local fans who have been watching the practice say the Blue Devils appear to be in good physical condition but have quite a ways yet to go in polishing up their plays.

Forty-one boys, including 12 or more lettermen, and representing more than a fifth of the total enrollment in the senior high school are trying out for the team this year, and the preseason sports the players is running high. This year's squad, however, is very light averaging around 140 pounds. With a formidable array of heavyweight opponents scheduled to meet the Blue Devils this season, the two coaches are concentrating on plays calling for speed and precision timing rather than power drives. They are also, without too much success to date, trying to develop a strong Blue Devil aerial attack.

Members of the squad reporting regularly for practice include Ends Harry Fremd, Lynn Ebern, Lawrence Connell, James Scott, Raymond Caruthers, Fred Taylor, Max Wilson, Billy Jernigan, Donald Danson and Claude McLarty; Guards John Ogle, J. E. Spooner, Bobby Baker, John T. Pickett; Stanley Hooks, Glen Boland and Russell Sims; Tackles James Sims, Lee Wroten, James Barnes, Milton Salvatore, Kenneth Johnson, J. T. Guerry, Lennie Stuckey, J. B. Woodham and J. D. Harpley; Centers Fred Daniels, William Weathers and Buddy Sims; Backs James Latham, Rodney Connell, Bobby Peacock, Wilbur Geiger, Thomas Dickson, Huston Connell, Frank Gillis, Julian Snyder, Charles Phillips, Bill Elam, Clarence Padgett and Charles Dickson.

Edd Howell has been named manager of this year's team and his assistants are Frank Tillis and George Rozelle. Ann O'Connell, Gwenette Reeves, Doris Harper, Johanna McKinstrey and Loretta Wilson have been appointed cheerleaders to direct the activities of the pep squad in the cheering section of the stands.

"Farm To Market" Roads Will Receive Road Dept. Attention Under New Set-Up

TALLAHASSEE — The state road department Monday adopted a plan to advance counties funds to obtain rights-of-way for primary federal-aid highways. The counties would repay the money with surplus gasoline tax receipts.

In the past, the road department followed a policy of spending all its funds for construction and maintenance, with rights-of-way being obtained by the counties.

However, Chairman Elgin Bayless said the new policy will be of great benefit to many counties which do not have funds available at the present time and will still allow the road department to go ahead with its construction and maintenance program.

While it was not specifically mentioned, the new policy will provide Volusia county with the means to obtain the right-of-way for construction of a super highway from Jacksonville to Miami, through Daytona Beach. The Daytona Beach city commission recently declined to spend $300,000 for the right-of-way.

At the same time, the road department shifted its construction emphasis from primary to secondary, or "farm to market" roads.

In two separate moves the board revised the first year's allocation of federal aid secondary road funds to give first priority to farm-to-market roads; and also adopted a policy to follow recommendations of county commissioners in the expenditure of the 80 percent county surplus gasoline tax funds, providing the roads designated are parts of a coordinated system of connecting roads.

None of the surplus will be spent on main arteries of travel unless it is recommended by the counties affected.

"These actions," Chairman Bayless said, "are designed to provide the maximum of county control and to assure a fair distribution between counties of funds allocated."

"The board members in joint session with the state improvement commission revised its resolution authorizing issuance of revenue certificates for the construction of the Andrews ave. bridge in Fort Lauderdale.

The original resolution set a maximum of $250,000 worth of certificates, but the total was raised to $600,000 today when engineers reported the bridge would cost $550,000.

License Sales Are Lagging

Highway Patrolman W. R. Kaufman said yesterday that auto license sales are lagging in the Pahokee and Canal Point Community. After Oct. 1, he pointed out, it will be necessary for all persons desiring permits to take a rigid examination. The permits are on sale upstairs at City Hall in Pahokee and Mrs. Marvin Cowart is in charge of sales. In Belle Glade Mrs. Harris at Harris Insurance Agency is in charge of license sales.

Mother Local Woman Dies In Lyons, Ga.

Mrs. E. W. Wood of Pahokee received word early Wednesday morning of the death of her mother, Mrs. J. J. Wrenn, 80, at her home in Lyons, Ga. Mrs. Wrenn suffered a severe hip injury in a fall last summer and has been in poor health since. Mrs. Wood spent most of the summer with her at Lyons.

SIMONSON-LAIR CIRCLE

The Simon-Lair Circle will meet next Monday at 3:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. R. J. Simonson with Mrs. Ruth Hutton as co-hostess.

C. B. Starling In No. 2 Spot With Gulf Life

C. B. Starling, salesman with the Gulf Life Insurance company in Pahokee, has been named a member of the President's Club of his company and as such ranked in second place for sales with the concern. Mr. Starling has been with Gulf for five years and at present covers Canal Point and Pahokee. He is No. 1 salesman in the Palm Beach district, producing more business than any other agent. There are six salesmen working out of the Pahokee office.

Mr. Starling is anxious to become No. 1 man with Gulf but it seems that another salesman in Miami has the same idea. The Miami man is in No. 1 spot and the Pahokee salesman is exerting every effort to nose him out of the place. However, every time that the Pahokee salesman has a good sales period and it looks like he might go into first place—the Miami man also has a good sales period and stays in first place. So it goes. But Mr. Starling doesn't let any grass grow under his feet. He stays busy and one of these days will, in all probability, step into No. 1 spot with Gulf.

BPW Clubbers Plan For National Week

Plans to observe National B&PW Week, Oct. 13-19, were outlined by members of the Everglades Business and Professional Woman's Club at the first program meeting of the fall season held Tuesday night at the home of Cleo Douthett.

On Sunday, Oct. 13, club members will attend in a group services at the First Baptist Church. On Oct. 15 the club will conduct a meeting at the home of Ann Seiger in Canal Point. On Oct. 17, "girls' day," club members will shepherd high school girls interested in civics to the city hall for an introduction into the intricacies of city government. Special publicity of B&PWC work and goals will appear in local newspapers during the week.

Mabel Fletcher and Mrs. Douthett were awarded prizes for possessing the most knowledge of the history of Pahokee in a "Know Your Town" contest conducted by Alma Farrow. John T. Pickett, Sr., guest speaker, gave a talk on "Building a Better Community," the theme adopted by the club for the coming year.

Guests were welcomed by Tommie Lee DuBois, president, and the program was under the direction of Clark Hull, program chairman. Refreshments of blushing apple salad and cake were served by Mrs. Douthett, assisted by Phara Mock and Barbara McNamara, co-hostesses.

VETERANS TO HIALEAH

All veterans are urged to attend a state-wide meeting in Hialeah next Monday and Tuesday at which time a state-wide Veterans Political Organization will be formed. Those interested in going should get in touch with Howard Holman or Claude Jones.

10-Man Group Has Highway Plan For Everglades Area

Proposals for new state highways in the Glades area of Palm Beach County were introduced to Pahokee Lions at their Tuesday luncheon meeting. The report of a 10-man committee, composed of five men from Belle Glade and five from Pahokee, was read at the meeting and the support of the Lions was asked in a concerted movement to get the State Road Department to act on the committee's recommendations which were as follows:

That the State, with federal aid, build a trunk highway connecting Road 143 at the north with Road 26 at the south, the road to run a half mile east and parallel to the present Pahokee-Belle Glade road, or, as an alternate, build a similar linking highway one and a half miles east of the present highway connecting Road 194 and Road 26; also build a highway from Belle Glade east to Nimmie Bend on Road 55. The club voted to study these recommendations before giving its official approval or disapproval.

Lewis Friend and members of his swimming pool committee were authorized to start construction of the pool since sufficient funds are now available and a quantity of materials have been purchased.

Carl A. Moberg, president of the Pahokee PTA, announced that the membership goal for PTA this year has been set at 600 and as usual the Lions were asked to assist in making the drive a success. The Pahokee PTA will conduct its first meeting of the school year on Monday night, Oct. 7, Rev. Moberg said.

Cobweb Removal Helps Looks Of P. O.

Canal Point Postmaster Osceola Upthegrove returned over the weekend from the postmasters convention in Miami. On Wednesday of this week he was on a cleaning rampage and was knocking cobwebs right and left in the lobby of the post office. Local patrons are wondering just what kind of a speech or speeches Mr. Upthegrove heard to put that much pep into him. Anyway, the lobby looks a great deal better since the cobweb removal.

An Editor Is Married

An editor was married recently and reported his own wedding. He disposed of the bride in a few words, and then, according to the Titusville Star-Advocate, proceeded to devote the major portion of his attention to the groom as follows:

"The bridegroom, blushing prettily, was attractively clad in a three-piece suit of brown woolen material consisting of a coat, a vest and pants. The coat was charmingly festooned with a white flower in the left buttonhole. The vest was sleeveless, closed in front and gracefully fashioned with pockets. It was held together in the back with a strap and buckle. His pants were neatly pressed for the occasion and he wore them with an air as if he little suspected it would be the last time he 'wore pants' in that family. Hose and necktie added just the right dash of color to complement the effect. The shoes were of genuine leather, laced with a string of the same, giving a chic appearance. The shirt was of white broadcloth material, purchased on the black market in Atlanta. It had an 8-button front, one back, two sleeves, two cuffs and one collar. The shirt was worn with the tail neatly tucked in the pants."

Big Fish Story And Cold Swim At Dawn

Catching a 26-pound fish with a pair of ice tongs and an anchor is really something. That's what two women did near Midland, Ontario, the other day. They were having a morning swim, saw the big maskinonge quietly browsing around among the reeds, and biff, bang, they went at him anchor and tongs. Got him, too. This should be a lesson to those who like sunny dips in late afternoon and scorn snappy cold swims at dawn. Or maybe a lesson in keeping ice tongs and anchors handy, just in case. But then, of course, some people don't care for maskinonge.—Raleigh (N.C.) Times.

Retain Older Workers

Among many of the nation's employers, a new movement to retain older and experienced hands has become evident recently.

Not forgetting the problem of jobless youngsters, many industrialists realize that the past-forty workers is entitled to just as much consideration. They are also aware that the man who has spent 10 or 20 years in the same plant is normally pretty well equipped to handle his job. His very steadiness is an asset to the firm; his years of service, a tribute to his craftsmanship.

Weeding out faithful old-timers who are still capable is not an answer to the reconversion enigma. The youngsters themselves don't want the jobs that way.—Reidsville (N.C.) Review.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

(By Russell Kay)

You know awhile back Governor Caldwell told us that the Tampa newspapers were un-cooperative, unfair and just plain all around "um". He said they went out of their way to point out the bad things and refused to recognize the good.

At the time I thought the guy had gone overboard on the wrong side of the boat, but after reading the headlines and editorials this past week it looks like I'll have to agree with him.

You know we have been havin' a lot of fun here in Tampa over our banana boats. It seems that the fellows who bought the bananas wanted to unload the boats and the longshoremen said they couldn't because they were on strike. They weren't strikin' against the guys who owned the bananas, nor against the guys who owned the boats; they were mad at a flock of Washington bureaucrats known as the War Shipping Board and the Wage Stabilization Board, so they paraded up and down in front of the docks singin' "Yes, You Get No Bananas."

Now for my part they could let all the bananas stay on the boats until Gabriel blows his horn. I never eat the darn things, but it seems that some people do and right away the Mayor and Chief of Police and lots of other folks start frothin' at the mouth and screamin' for bananas.

Now when you want to pull off a grade A strike, you gotta have leadership and so the longshoremen bein' a more or less rugged outfit look around and pick out a guy named "Sailor" Hall to run their show.

Well, "Sailor" being honest and conscientious and anxious to do a good job, throws a picket line around the docks and starts hangin' up "No Bananas" signs in all the languages includin' the Scandinavian.

And here is where the newspapers come into the picture. Right away they start sayin' a lot of unkind things about Mr. Hall. They point out that he is an ex-convict, out on parole and that he has a police record longer than a bad dream. They even go so far as to publish his picture, number and all, and call him a highwayman and bank robber.

It's just like Governor Caldwell said. All they can see is the bad and they ignore the good. Here is a guy who may have been in the penitentiary and may be all they say about him is true. But he is out on parole and trying to go straight.

Instead of tryin' to make a livin' the hard way like robbin' banks or stickin' up fillin' stations, he gets himself a respectable job as a labor leader. Like Mr. Petrillo, he has found that "crime doesn't pay" so he is playin' it on the level. He quits breakin' the laws and joins the smart guys that MAKE 'EM.

Instead of talkin' about Mr. Hall's unfortunate past and draggin' all the skeletons out of his family closet, the newspapers should have praised him for his noble effort to go straight and told how he had reformed and was trying his level best to earn an honest livin'.

How can Tampa ever expect to get anywhere when our newspapers use such poor judgement? Don't they realize that things have changed in this country, that this is the age of the "Common Man"?

Imagine what Claude Pepper will say when he hears about this! Think how embarrassing it will be to him. How can he explain such action to his friend Joe Stalin? What will Mrs. Roosevelt say when she learns that our brutal Mayor sent nasty old policemen to open the picket lines? Do you think she would cross a picket line for a lousy banana?

Imagine all this stink bein' raised over a few boat loads of bananas. Now if it was sugar or butter or beef, I could understand it, but bananas don't make sense. Haven't we got enough people fallin' around and breakin' their legs as it is without importin' a couple of million bananas for folks to stuff themselves sick with and throw peelings all over the side walks? Why instead of condemnin' Mr. Hall what we ought to do is erect a statue to him or elect him president of the Safety Council. The way we been carryin' on you would think we were a bunch of Republicans or something.

No wonder the labor boys staged a protest parade, stormed the City Hall and threatened to call a general strike. In fact they got so upset over the mess that they forgot all about Tom Watson for a whole week. And when labor gets so wrought up it forgets Tom, well, brother, that's bad, and I do mean BAD.

The report of the nominating committee on officers, Fellowship Men's Bible Class, was presented by Horace Unwin and adopted last Sunday, as follows: President, L. Jaudon, Membership Vice, President Thurmond Knight, Social Vice President C. R. Wroten, Fellowship vice president Claude Shirley, Spiritual vice president Henry Barwick, Recording Secretary M. P. The almost accomplished goal of 200 enrolled will be the aim of the class for the new year which will begin October 1st, in a special campaign led by the Membership Vice President Thurmond Knight. This Sunday the teacher will present the lesson as found in Matt. 25:31-46. Baptists Enjoy Fish Fry Last Thursday

One of the best, if not the best, was the fish fry put on last Thursday night on the grounds of the First Baptist Church, Pahokee. The estimated 100 men in attendance agreed that this kind of thing should be done often. Hence, in the very near future this will be repeated with the presence of the ladies to make the program complete. Dave Young, the swamp cabbage expert, R. Cowart, the ice tea maker extraordinary, Angus and Albert Cowart, hush puppy artists a la supreme, not to mention fishermen Wroten, Mock, Weaver, Marvin Unwin, Levens, Evans, Gillis and Tillis performed in a manner worthy of much commendation.

CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"REALITY" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, September 29.

The Golden Text is: "In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God" (Ps. 62:7). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible. "All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord; and thy saints shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power; To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom" (Ps. 145:10-12).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Scriptures imply that God is All-in-all. From this it follows that nothing possesses reality nor existence except the divine Mind and His ideas. Everything in God's universe expresses Him. He is all inclusive, and is reflected by all that is real and eternal and by nothing else" (Ps. 31:11-13, 16-17, 20-22).

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

This offering, at the Prince Theatre this coming Sunday-Monday, has a very intriguing title—"Cinderella Jones",—which bears a title which suggest something really delightful in entertainment. It certainly is a joyful, interesting comedy drama.

The stars of the piece are Joan Leslie and Robert Alda, with Julie Bishop and Edward Everett Horton in the principal featured roles and many other well known names lending a hand in the making of this fine show.

Joan is cast as a popular singer with a well known ork, who receives word she has inherited a fortune with the stipulation that she has just so long in which to pick a hubby and settle down to keeping house. Joan has two young men on her list, but she has a hard time trying to decide which one wants her just for her self and not for her fortune. At last she makes the decision and everything ends happily. You'll like it!

Tuesday-Wednesday brings lovely Dorothy Lamour and personable Arturo de Cordova as the leads in an interesting comedy drama under the title "Masquerade in Mexico", which depicts the embarrassing situation of a young lady who becomes, innocently, an accomplice in a diamond smuggling ring. She loses all of her own money and is hired by a man to stop the attentions of a popular matador toward his wife. You'll howl at this one . . . and I mean happily!

"So Goes my Love" is the offering for Thursday-Friday, with Myrna Loy and Done Amechee as the leading characters and Molly

Lamound and Bobby Driscoll in the principal featured roles.

This one tells the story of a young lady who goes to the city to marry a millionaire. Instead she meets and falls in love with Don Ameche, a struggling young inventor. They marry and have a family and Don becomes wealthy with his many clever inventions. There is comedy, pathos and tense-ness running through this show and I'm sure you'll like it.

For Saturday I see "Ideal Girl", with Jess Baker, Julie Bishop, Alan Mowbray and Charlie Barnett and His Ork. This is the private life of a "cutie" who gives the boys ideas . . . And Wild Ideas! The Western picture on this bill is Russell Hayden in "Wyoming Hurricane."

See you at the movies . . . Mal.

Ben Waring Grows Fine Herefords On N. Florida Ranch

Of interest to people in the Glades will be the following story out of the Madison Enterprise-Recorder which tells of Ben S. Waring's prowess as a promoter of fine cattle in the north Florida county. Mr. Waring, until recently, lived in Pahokee and it was in this section that he started his herd. Recently he and his family moved to their new home north of Madison. The story in full (minus the picture of the bull) as it appeared in the Madison paper is reprinted below:

F.R.R. Beau Domino, is the herd bull on Ben S. Waring's Hillcrest Ranch, located two and a half miles north of town on the Quitman highway. Beau Domino was purchased from the Fox Run Ranch of Louisville, Ky., in May 1945. When Beau Domino was 9 months old, he took second place in the Kentucky State Fair.

Mr. Waring began his Hereford raising activities in South Florida in May, 1944, when he purchased four horned Hereford cows from James A. Henderson of Dade City. Later, Mr. Waring bought Mr. Henderson's entire calf crop of 65 Herefords. In the 65 calves were about 20 bulls, which have been sold to Madison County farmers, or farmers from adjacent counties. Prices received for the bulls varied from $150 to $350 each.

Mr. Waring is very interested in 4-H Club projects, and reported that several Lafayette County boys are feeding Hillcrest Ranch calves. One Madison County boy is engaged in a similar project. Mr. Waring stated that, if any calf doesn't measure up to standards required by Hillcrest Ranch, he is thrown in the feed lot and later sold as beef. A new feed barn capable of accommodating 40 cattle at one time is now under construction and is expected to be completed by October 1st. Next year Mr. Waring said that feed lots are expected to be operating at all times.

The management of Hillcrest Ranch is under Ben S. Waring's father, Mr. M. H. Waring. About 600 acres are in permanent pasture and woodland, and 500 in grain and row crops. All soil conservation improvements are being made as fast as possible, Mr. Waring stated.

Assisting Mr. Waring are his two sons, Howell, 15, and John, 13, who are taking active part in the ranch operations. While Howell was in a 4-H club at Pahokee he raised a calf from one of his father's cows which sold for $300 at weaning.

Farmers of this county, 4-H club boys, and other interested persons are invited by Mr. Waring to visit the Hillcrest Ranch and see the Herefords raised there. Mr. Waring stated that practically all of this year's calves are sold, but that there will be many more next year. If any farm boys are interested in feeding one of the calves, Mr. Waring will be glad to talk with him.

Milton Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Carpenter, who has been taking boot training at the Bainbridge, Md., Naval Base, has been transferred to Newport, R. I.

Kissimmee Boosts Sen. Ray Carroll For Kiwanis Honor

KISSIMMEE—Under the slogan "Building for Kiwanis," the Kissimmee Kiwanis Club has enthusiastically endorsed State Senator N. Ray Carroll, former president of the Club and at present Lieutenant Governor of the Central Florida District, for the district governorship at the Daytona Beach Convention October 13-14-15.

Senator Carroll, one of the few men to serve two consecutive years as president of the Kissimmee Club, has been instrumental in forming a new Kiwanis Club in St. Cloud and has taken an active part in furthering Key Clubs in the Central Florida district. At Leesburg last week, the Senator was one of the leading Kiwanians at a Key Club rally.

His business interests are varied. Besides being president of the First National Bank of Kissimmee, he is an officer of the Bank of Okeechobee. An organizer of the Kissimmee Livestock Market, Carroll also is vice president of the Okeechobee Market. His Carrollton ranch at Deer Park embraces 55,000 acres and he also has wide holdings in citrus groves.
